Reserved seats and quotas

There are reserved seats in parliament for certain groups	No
Electoral quota for women	Yes Notes: Political parties that submit their list of candidates in at least four constituencies at parliamentary elections, and obtain at least 2% of votes, will be entitled to an allocation of State funding. Parties that include at least 24 candidates from each sex in their list of candidates will receive 100% of the allocation. Parties submitting a list that does not meet those criteria will have their allocation reduced by between 25% and 95%, depending on the number of candidates from a single sex that appear on the list (from less than 15 up to 23).
